Bio/History:

Robert Stearns (1947-2014) was Performing Arts Coordinator at the Walker Art Center from 1982-1988. Prior to his tenure at the Walker, Stearns held positions at The Kitchen (1972-1977) in New York and was the director of the Contemporary Arts Center in Cincinnati (1978-1982). After Stearns time at the Walker, he was the first director at University of Columbus' Wexner Center for the Arts. Remaining in Columbus, he established a curatorial and arts programming firm named Stearns and Associates in 1992. During his time in Columbus, Stearns focused on Ohio artists while retaining his ties to the Twin Cities art community. In the later years of his life, Stearns established Arts Oasis in Palm Springs, California.

Scope and Content:

Arrangement: The Coordinator records, also referred to as programming files, are organized by programming year. A season begins in July and ends the following June. Each season is divided into four subseries: administration, music, dance, and theater. Within each subseries the folders are arranged chronologically.

Description:

The programming files of the performing arts curator include materials regarding events. Files are organized by administration, music, dance and theater. Theater encompasses poetry, interdisciplinary pieces, and writers readings.

Robert Stearns tenure at the Walker was exemplified by boosting and developing art residencies and commissions both nationally and internationally. Stearns began his position as Performing Arts Coordinator in fall of 1982. Nigel Redden was Stearns' immediate predecessor. Stearns continued to promote performance series established by previous coordinators such as Minnesota Composers Forum, Perspectives Series, and Choreographers Evening to highlight local artists. Stearns continuity of these series provided solid ground to further develop and grow the performing arts department and performances.

With his ties to the international and local arts communities, Stearns helped develop innovative and interdisciplinary Performing Arts programming. Such noteworthy programming includes: Knee Plays/Civil Wars, The Tower, Lateral Pass and Fabrications. One of Stearns most ambitious programming events was Word Works. Word Works spanned the month of October in 1983 and featured music, dance, theater, author readings and intermedia performances including the renowned production The Gospel at Colonus. In the spring of 1986, Tokyo: Form and Spirit, a Japanese Performance Festival came to the Twin Cities as a result of collaborative efforts of the Walker Art Center and other international institutions. Stearns' role in this festival was pivotal as he sought and arranged Japanese artist performances.

Stearns was also responsible for attracting prominent artists such as William S. Burroughs, Fab 5 Freddy, Laurie Anderson, Christian Marclay, David Hockney and John Cage to the Twin Cities. He completed his tenure at the Walker Art Center in 1988 before continuing his career in Columbus. He will be remembered as being instrumental in bringing the Walker to the international stage.
